What’s Coming to KPC 2027

The official schedule will be released at a later date as activities, times and details are finalized.

MEET & GREET

Meet fellow campers, make new friends and put faces to the callsigns and people you’ve connected with along the way.

FOX HUNT

Put your radio-direction-finding skills to the test as you track down the hidden signal and enjoy some friendly competition.

POTA ACTIVATIONS

Get on the air from Taylorsville Lake, make contacts, hunt activations and share the excitement of Parks on the Air.

FELLOWSHIP

Relax around camp, swap stories, compare gear, talk radios and enjoy time with friends from Kentucky and beyond.

COMMUNITY MEAL

A special opportunity for everyone to gather around the table for good food, conversation and fellowship.

GROUP PHOTOS

We’ll gather together for group photos and memories of the people who make KPC what it is.

CHALLENGES & GAMES

Expect fun challenges, games and a little friendly competition. You may leave with some serious bragging rights!

SPECIAL ACTIVITIES

We’re working on additional activities and surprises to make the weekend something special. More details are coming.

OFFICIAL SCHEDULE COMING LATER

We’re taking the time to put together a weekend with opportunities to participate, explore, relax, meet people and make memories.

A JOURNEY THROUGH FRONTIER, REVOLUTION, HISTORY & BEAUTY

Kentucky: Where America Moved West

You don’t just visit Kentucky. You walk through its story.

BEFORE THERE WAS A KENTUCKY, THERE WAS A WILDERNESS.
For thousands of years, Indigenous peoples lived in and traveled through the lands that became Kentucky. Later came explorers, long hunters and pioneers moving through the Appalachian passes and into the country beyond. Kentucky became a place where trails, rivers, forts, farms and communities helped carry America westward.

1750	FIRST EXPLORERS	Thomas Walker and other explorers entered the region through routes that connected the Appalachian world to Kentucky.
1775	THE WILDERNESS ROAD	Daniel Boone and his axemen opened Boone Trace toward Boonesborough, helping establish a route into the frontier.
1775–1783	REVOLUTIONARY FRONTIER	Kentucky communities became part of the struggle for independence while settlers faced the realities of life on the frontier.
1792	A NEW COMMONWEALTH	Kentucky entered the Union as the 15th state and the first state west of the Appalachian Mountains.
1800s	RIVERS • ROADS • RAIL	River commerce, roads and railroads transformed Kentucky from frontier gateway into a growing crossroads.
TODAY	THE STORY IS STILL HERE	Historic roads, battlefields, forts, museums, landscapes and small towns let visitors experience pieces of that story for themselves.

YOU DON’T JUST VISIT KENTUCKY. YOU WALK THROUGH ITS STORY.

COME SEE WHERE THE STORY HAPPENED.

TAYLORSVILLE LAKE STATE PARK — KENTUCKY

COME FOR THE CAMPOUT. STAY FOR THE ADVENTURE.

Thank you for considering joining us for the 2nd Annual Kentucky POTA Campout. We would be honored to have you with us at Taylorsville Lake State Park September 24–26, 2027.

Whether you are coming for the campout, the fellowship, the adventure, or simply a chance to experience more of Kentucky, we hope this guide has given you something to look forward to.

We hope you will make the trip, stay awhile, explore the area, and create memories that last long after the campfire goes out. Bring your family, bring your friends, and come ready to camp, explore, activate, and fellowship.

Most of all, thank you for considering being part of KPC 2027. We hope to see you at Taylorsville Lake — and hopefully welcome you back to Kentucky again and again.

SAFE TRAVELS — WE HOPE TO SEE YOU SOON
